

Smalltalk Industry Council Announces Smalltalk Solutions 2008

Save the Date and Plan to Attend

Cincinnati, OH - The Smalltalk Industry Council (STIC) is pleased to announce the dates and location for Smalltalk Solutions 2008. The conference will be held on June 18-21, 2008 in Reno, Nevada. Smalltalk Solutions is the premier forum for bringing together Smalltalk users, developers, and enthusiasts as well as anyone who is interested and curious in the wonderful Smalltalk technology.

The conference will again include:

- Coding Contest - 4th Annual
- Tutorials
- Industry Keynotes
- Conference Tracks

We expect to have another packed conference agenda with representatives from the STIC Board and members from the Seaside, Ruby and other Dynamic Languages presenting the latest topics of interested for the Development Community.

We'll have more information regarding call for papers, coding contest registration, sponsorship opportunities and early bird registration in the coming weeks.

Smalltalk Solutions will be held at the Grand Sierra Resort. A bold new blend of the epic outdoor adventure in Reno and a luxury hotel, Grand Sierra Resort promises to be one of the nation's most imaginative and spectacular resorts with over 10 restaurants on site, a shopping mall, a health club and spa, free airport shuttle, car rental on property, fun-quest family fun center, a 50-lane bowling alley, go carts and miniature golf, spectacular productions and headliner entertainment, a movie theatre and so much more.

About STIC:

The Smalltalk Industry Council is a cohesive Smalltalk community where information, technical issues, new ideas and concerns are openly discussed to benefit the industry. STIC members are users and vendors of Smalltalk tools, components, databases and services. The Smalltalk Industry Council has been reorganized and reformed with the core board members from Cincom, Instantiations, GemStone and Georg Heeg as Executive Director.
